

Enter header here.

Object ID: 78.268.1-.9

Previous ID: TR2632/2

Designer: Paul Storr (British, 1771 - 1844)

Title: cruet

Date: 1810-1818

Medium: metal, silver gilt, glass

Dimensions: 12-1/2 x 17-1/2 x 12-3/4 in.

Credit Line: Gift of Mrs. Carolyn A. Williams in memory of her husband, Mr. Harry Knadler Williams

Accession Date: December 21, 1978

Collection Rank: D

Appraised Value: $6,000.00

Date Valued: January 31, 2019

Value Notes: Appraised value of $6,000 - $8,000 for 78.268.1-.9 provided by Richard Nelson, Senior Vice President of Decorative Arts and Jody Wilkie, Co-Chairman, European Decorative Arts International Specialist Head European Porcelain & Glass from Christie's New York

Provenance: Mrs. Harry K. Williams (Carolyn A.), Louisville, Kentucky; gift to Indianapolis Museum of Art, Indianapolis, Indiana, in 1978.

Reason for Deaccession: Recommended for deaccession by Barry Shifman on 5/12/2006. His comments were: "weak, usual piece." Charles L. Venable, Melvin & Bren Simon Director & CEO, concurred in February 2019.

Object ID: 78.151

Previous ID: TR2617

English

Title: George II style gilded pine side table

Date: top 18th century, base 1950s

Medium: gilded pine, brass, marble veneer

Dimensions: 33 x 60 x 30-1/4 in.

Credit Line: Gift of Mr. John H. Bookwalter

Accession Date: October 05, 1978

Collection Rank: D

Appraised Value: $10,000.00

Date Valued: January 31, 2019

Value Notes: Appraised value of $10,000 - $20,000 provided by Richard Nelson, Senior Vice President of Decorative Arts and Jody Wilkie, Co-Chairman, European Decorative Arts International Specialist Head _ European Porcelain & Glass from Christie's New York

Provenance: Purchased from dealer Ronald A. Lee (London, England) by Indianapolis Museum of Art (1978).

Reason for Deaccession: Reviewed by Will Iselin, Iselin Art Advisory Ltd., who determined that the base appears to be a pastiche made in the 20th century in mid-Georgian style. Richard Nelson, Senior Specialist of Interiors at Christie's also viewed this piece on 11/14/2018 and concurred with Iselin.